Woman Hurt When Pinned Between Cars

A Bethesda woman was injured critically yesterday when pinned between two cars in a freak accident in a parking lot at 1725 20th st. nw.

The legs of Mrs. Arlene Becker of 5805 Marbury rd., were crushed when a car driven by Robert W. Enholm of 7215 Chestnut st., Chevy Chase, went out of control in the parking lot.

She was rushed to Georgetown University Hospital, where she was reported in critical condition last night with multiple fractures of both legs and pelvis.

Enholm, was backing out of a parking space, police said, when his gear shift apparently slipped and the car shot forward, pinning Mrs. Becker against another car.

Mrs. Becker's father-in-law, Julius Becker, 78, of New York City, suffered minor contusions.

Mrs. Becker is the wife of Joseph Becker, an employe of the Central Intelligence Agency, according to Georgetown Hospital officials.
